COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

SATURDAY EVENING, 9TH JAN. 1876.

With heavy receipts again at the American ports the Liverpool Cotton Market continues very depressed. Reuter's report for to-day only calls the market dull at unchanged prices on the spot, sales 6,000 bales, but from private sources we learn that Surats to arrive are quite 1/16d. per lb. lower and most difficult of sale. Fully Good Fair Omrawattee January shipment via Canal is being offered at 5¾d. and Good Fair February March shipment via Canal at 5¼d. per lb. delivered, in both instances fully 1/16d. per lb. under the present prices here exclusive of commission.

In New York Mid-Uplands on the spot is still quoted at 13¼ cents., but March shipment has declined from 13.11/16 to 13.9/16 cents per lb. Gold has advanced from 112¼ to 113, and Exchange on London from dirs. 4·84½ to dirs. 4·85 per £ sterling. The Receipts at the Ports show the following comparisons with previous years:

	1876	1875	1874.
Week's Receipts	150,000	80,000	138,000
„ Exports to U. K.	80,000	49,000	63,000

Total Receipts since 1st Sep.	2,493,000	2,205,000	2,071,000
„ Exports to U. K.	835,000	830,000	678,000
„ „ Continent	532,000	296,000	327,000
„ Stocks at the Ports	796,000	842,000	758,000

The total visible supply of Cotton for all Europe on the 7th inst. was 2,660,000 bales of all descriptions including 490,000 Surats as against 2,560,000 and 470,000 bales respectively on the previous week. The supply in and afloat for the U. K. alone compares with the previous two years as follows:—

	1876	1875	1874.
Stocks in Liverpool	650,000	768,710	614,070
Do. London	61,500	118,760	205,850
American afloat	390,000	251,000	285,000
East Indian „	80,000	120,000	114,000

The Manchester Piece Goods Market on Friday was reported quiet but steady, prices throughout being the same as quoted on Tuesday last. Reuter's statement of the shipments of Piece Goods and Twist from the U. K. to India during the month of December last shows very large supplies of all description both for Bombay and Calcutta.

The General Produce Markets in London were unchanged yesterday.

Consols to-day were quoted at 93⅞; French Rentes at 104½. Reuter gives Bar Silver yesterday at 55¾ per oz. which is recovery, of ¼d. private advices having advised 55¾d. on the previous day. The Southampton steamer of the 6th is advised as bringing £32,000 in Gold for Bombay, but this is probably a mistake and is either meant for Silver, or, if the amount be in Gold, it is possibly for Alexandria.

The market rates of discount is said to be ¾ per cent. lower than the Bank minimum or 4½ per cent. which if correct may be accepted as an indication that the advance to 5 per cent. has been sufficient to stop the demand for the Continent and turn the stream in favor of the Bank again. Even if the position shows a decided improvment, however, we are not likely to see any in the rate within a week of the advance although from the dulness of trade at home 5 per cent. is not likely to be maintained for any length of time.

STERLING EXCHANGE here has been very easy again to-day, although rates are not quotably lower. The Banks still continue much more anxious to buy than sell, and low as rates undoubtedly are looking to the limited amount of paper there will be offering for the next few weeks, a further decline seems by no means unlikely should Bar Silver not advance in value. We quote:—

Bank Bills on demand	1s.10¼d to 9-32d. per Rupee
Do. 6 months' sight	1s. 9¾d.	„
Credits 3	„	„
Documents 3	„	1s. 9 13-16d. „

On Calcutta there is no change. The Accountant General is still a seller of demand at 1/16d discount but the Banks and private sellers hold out for par.

In GOVERNMENT PAPER there is very little doing. Fours, Rs. 101-13/16 to ¼; Fours-and-a half, Rs. 102 11-16; Fives-and-a-half, Rs. 107.

The SHARE MARKET continues firm but transactions to day have not been numerous, and there is no change in values to notice.

COTTON is a trifle quieter on the Green for every thing except the highest classes of Omrawuttee Good Fair and upwards. For these which are very scarce an active demand prevails at Rs. 177 to Rs. 178 for Good Fair to Rs. 182 to Rs. 183 for Fully G. F., and Rs. 186 for F. G. F. Good, all rates which lay down at fully over Liverpool arrival prices exclusive of commission. The wretched outturn of the Hingunghaut crop both in quality and quantity is expected to induce an increased demand for high class Omras, and these being also scarce and likely to continue so, a good deal of buying has been done for speculation which to some extent accounts for the comparatively high prices now being paid. The receipts from up country during the week amount to 13,468 bales against 31,017 last year, and 26,738 bales in 1874; the totals for the season from 1st September being respectively 111,092 bales against 191,897 last, and 140,165 bales in the preceding year. This deficiency we are inclined to think, however, will be made up later on, as through Omra and Broach being late and Dhollera an early crop we shall have all three descriptions arriving in quantity at the same time, say about the end of February or beginning, and it is not unlikely that we may then see about the largest receipts of the year.

FREIGHTS continue strong for steamers and consignees decline to accept less than £2·10, but shippers are loth to pay the rate and will not engage forward at it. The Varuna has been put on the berth for Liverpool at £2·5, at which she is engaging some small lots.

PIECE GOODS are very dull still, and in every respect unaltered. The demand is limited both from first hands and the Bazaar, and prices are no better notwithstanding the serious decline in sterling exchange.

COALS are quiet but steady, the part cargo of Brymbo Welsh Hartley ex Clydesdale has been sold at Rs. 18½ per ton alongside. To arrive the enquiry is not active although the quantity on the way for the market is comparatively small.

THE FIRST NUMBER of the New Series of the OVERLAND SUMMARY OF THE BOMBAY GAZETTE is a considerable improvement on anything we have yet seen turned out in similar shape. It contains 32 pages, and is replete with interesting information on Indian subjects, all this for Annas four cash, the Summary is ridiculously cheap. Sixty-one columns of closely printed reading matter all for a mere sixpence. The fact is almost beyond belief, by reason of its very marvellousness. In addition to a well-arranged and judiciously-selected mass of intelligence there is a series of articles on the topics of the times, reproduced from the daily editions of the Bombay Gazette. On the whole, or taking it all in all, the Overland Summary, published at the Bombay Gazette Press, is about the best, if it is not the best, we have seen; and people desirous of keeping their friends in the mother country well informed of all that is transpiring in this far-off land would be guilty of an unpardonable sin of omission if they neglected forwarding by each Mail copies of the really excellent publication we have been noticing.—Sindian.

SERIOUS AFFRAY AT HYDERABAD.

SECUNDERABAD, 9TH JAN.

The reported fighting in the City is exaggerated. The Pathans, alarmed by the reported arrest of their priest, the suspected instigator of the murder of the monlvie, assembled for self defence. Great excitement prevailed and blows were exchanged, the result of which is that one man was killed and two wounded. All is now quiet. The Minister having repeatedly declared all needful arrests had been effected, the pathans dispersed.

Jail guards have been doubled.

CALCUTTA AFTER THE FESTIVITIES.

CALCUTTA, 9TH JAN.

Calcutta has passed a week of comparative repose, the public engagements worth noting having been confined to the Ball given to Naval Officers at the Town Hall on Friday and Ballygunge Steeplechases yesterday. The Ball was the first enjoyable entertainment of the kind this season. There were fewer people and few decorations yet plenty of both. Lord Northbrook and Hon'ble Emma Baring attended.

The gathering at the Steeplechases was larger than ever before, the sport good and no accidents.

Not On won the Ballygunge Cup and Bachelor the Suburban, both ridden by Mr. Johnson.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMITTEE.

The Civil Service Grievances Committee examined five witnesses on Friday; the work is heavy and the report probably will not be submitted to Government for another month.

Sir Henry Norman and Colonel Allen Johnson have gone up from Calcutta to the Camp of Exercise.

ALLAHABAD, 9TH JAN

Sir Henry Norman has been asked by the Secretary of State to remain in office yet another additional year and has consented. The Prince of Wales is to arrive on the 11th at Delhi and a programme of the arrangements designed for his reception had been prepared, but the sad accident to the Commander-in-Chief announced by our correspondent at the Camp will necessarily lead to many modifications.

BEFORE leaving Calcutta, His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales was graciously pleased to command Dr. Fayrer to present portraits of their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales to Surgeon-Major S. K. Ray, in medical charge of H. M.'s 40th Regiment, with a view to their being suspended in the Garrison Hospital, in commemoration of His Royal Highness visit to that Hospital on December 31st, 1875. His Royal Highness also ordered some fruit to be distributed to the soldiers in Hospital with His Royal Highness' good wishes for the new year.

THE following General Order by the Commander-in-Chief has been published to the Madras Army :—

"Head Quarters, Madras, 20th December 1875.

"It affords the Commander-in-Chief the greatest gratification in having it in his command to publish to the Army in this Presidency, that His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales was exceedingly well pleased with the smart turnout and soldier-like appearance of the troops he reviewed on the Island last Friday evening.

"His Royal Highness was pleased to commend in cordial terms the air of great efficiency presented by all on this occasion, the steadiness of all ranks under arms, and the good marching and accurate manœuvring of the regiments.

"It was with much pride His Excellency received His Royal Highness' commands to promulgate to the Army these laudatory comments passed on the troops in this garrison, and in now doing so Sir Frederick Haines congratulates the officers and men of the Madras Army on the favourable opinion His Royal Highness has formed, and doubtless will ever retain of their high soldier-like qualities and efficiency."

THE Indian Daily News gives the following account of the "young lady artiste lately arrived at Calcutta" who played the piano so exquisitely at the concert of sacred music given at Government House on Sunday evening, the 2nd January. We are told that the artiste who played was Madlle. Olga Duboin, a young lady born in Moscow but of French parentage, who received her musical education at the Conservatoir de Leipsic, and was a pupil of the celebrated de Moscheles. Mdlle. Duboin has come to Calcutta with very high testimonials from Her Majesty the Queen of Greece; and with letters of introduction to members of the staff of the Prince of Wales. Hence, perhaps, it was that her first appearance in Calcutta was private at Government House; though, it is hoped, that the public may soon have an opportunity of hearing this accomplished young lady on the most popular of instruments.

WE learn from the Englishmen, that the latest intelligence from the Yunnan expedition is that Mr. Grosvenor and his colleagues reached Ichang on the 1st December All were well, and they were to proceed on their journey on the following day. The trade at Ichang seems to be unimportant, it being all absorbed by Shasi. The party walked round the walls of Ichang, and found them four miles in circumference. They were disappointed with the place, which is not even picturesquely situated, though there are some fine hills on the opposite side of the river. Shasi is a far more interesting place both as regards the city and neighbourhood and a city called King-chow-foo, situated about three miles from Shasi, is described as exceptionally good. The walls were in perfect order, and the moat around it is 200 yards and upwards in breadth. Among the hills, near Shasi, is a natural arch about 200 yards high. Caves of stalactites were also visited. At Ichang, the large boat in which they started from Hankow was exchanged for two smaller ones, and in these they expected to travel 700 miles, before the land journey begins. The river runs here 2½ miles an hour, and with a fair wind they had been able to sail against the current. Otherwise they have to tack. Shortly after leaving Ichang the rapids are encountered, and there, of course, tacking is the only mode of progress. Every attention is being shown by the mandarins, who take almost too much care to ensure their being protected from any incivility.

CONSIDERING that the dulness in trade during the past six months has been uprecedented, even in years so dull as the last two or three have been, we do not think, says the Madras Mail, that the Bank of Madras has done badly in paying a dividend at the rate of three per cent. for that period. In the absence of life and buoyancy in every branch of commerce, money has been a drug in the market, and even at the cheap rates of interest consequently ruling, there has been no small difficulty in finding employment for capital. It will be remembered that the same dividend was paid for the corresponding period in 1874, when, freed from the disquieting elements which have recently interfered with trade generally, and banking operations in particular, there was a better chance of making money. The very grave distrust which last year prevailed in the mercantile world, created a state of things very unfavorable to Banks not only as subjecting them to the risk of losses, but as rendering necessary such extreme caution, that the field for making money was considerably narrowed. From the statement which has been published, it will be seen that a dividend of three per cent. for the half-year is paid after increasing the Reserve Fund by Rs. 50,000 and that had this course not been adopted, the dividend might have been made four per cent. It is premature to criticise the accounts as yet, but it is a good sign that the Directors, in view of the premium which will have to be paid on the Government shares have only increased the Reserve Fund by a sum approximately sufficient for that purpose; it looks like a freedom from any anxiety as to the realisation of the out-standing debts. A balance of about Rs. 9,000 is carried forward to the current half year, which relieved of the incubus of the Government shares, and benefiting by the larger trade, always carried on during the first half of the year, promises to be a good one.

A FEW days ago we took from the Pioneer an extract which traced the progress of the Naga Hills survey party up to their arrival at Lakhuti on Christmas Eve. The same paper continues the account as follows :—The attack on the party next day had already been telegraphed, and details have now been received in full. Early on Chrismas day, Captain Butler and the survey party marched from Lakhuti. Their way at first was along the descent to a small river, which they crossed, and then marched upwards on the road to Pangti, a village where they meant to encamp that same night. Before the expedition started from Lakhuti, the men there had warned them against the possible outbreak of hostilities; and their warning turned out to be too well founded. About a mile from the river, the narrow path crossed over some deep ravines, and wound like a snake through the tall grass. On a sudden the guide from Lakhuti ran off; and then the war cries from the jungle all round showed that it was alive with hostile Nagas. So thick, though, was the jungle, that the enemy, hardly five yards from the path, were invisible. Then came a shower of spears, stones, and so forth; answered by the sepoys most emphatically, for groans were heard from the different parts of the jungle. Captain Butler, it seems, had gone back, some little time before the first alarm to give orders about crossing the coolies over a suspicious looking ravine. All at once a Naga started into the path; and before a rifle could be raised, he hurled a spear at Captain Butler that struck him just below the collar-bone, and pierced his right breast. The wound was attended to by the native doctor, and he was carried gently back some little way to an open place where the camp was formed, for it was too late to follow up the Nagas then. When our correspondent wrote, the 27th December, Captain Butler was getting on well, and the wound was thought to be not quite so serious as it looked at first. The day before, Colonel Tulloch, with a small force, attacked and destroyed Pangti. The whole party were to stay at the camp, which is about two miles off the village, till Captain Butler is well enough to move.

THE Englishman :—The visit of H. R. H. the Prince of Wales to the House of Babu Jagadanand Mukerjea, to which we briefly alluded on Tuesday, has afforded His Royal Highness an opportunity of studying Indian life in a phase in which it has fallen to the lot of few Europeans to catch even a glimpse of it. The preliminaries of the visit were arranged by the Hon'ble Miss Baring, Lady Temple, Lady Hogg, and a few other ladies, but the actual reception at the House was left entirely in the hands of the Babu and his family, and right well they performed their task. At about three o'clock the party from Belvedere arrived, consisting of Lady Temple, and some other ladies, who were shortly followed by Miss Milman, Lady Hogg, Lady Malet, and the Hon'ble Miss Baring. Amongst the gentlemen present was the Chief Justice. About four o'clock, the Prince and his suite arrived, and were received by the Babu, by whom the Prince was escorted to the large hall of the family dwelling-house. On the Prince's entering the compound, about two hundred children from Miss Milman's and Miss Heysham's schools who lined the pathway on each side, sang a song in Bengali, welcoming the Prince, and strewed the path with flowers. The ladies of the family, with about one hundred and fifty native ladies of some of the highest families in Calcutta, were assembled within to see His Royal Highness, and showered flowers in front, of the Prince's feet. Dr. Fayrer, who had been family physician to the Babu for some years before leaving India, acted as interpreter between H. R. H and the ladies, the Babu also interpreting the high-flown Oriental compliments paid by them to the Prince. The Prince stayed nearly half an hour, and before leaving said that nothing had given him greater pleasure than his visit to the Babu since his arrival in India, and that he would mention to the Queen, his mother, the way in which he had been received by the native ladies. As specimens of the native manufactures of Bengal, the Babu offered to the Prince a handsome necklace, some bangles, some specimens of embroidered and plain Dhaka muslins, same Benaras muslins, some rose water, a pair of slippers worked by his daughter in-law —with which the Prince was especially pleased —and some garlands of flowers made with Bengal cotton by the Babu's daughter. Altogether the visit was a great success.

NAGPORE, C. P., 3rd Jan. 1876.

SIR,—I earnestly trust you will excuse the liberty I am taking in addressing you, but my object in so doing, is to fervently ask "forgiveness" from you for my dishonest action. Words cannot express my earnest and sincere contrition for my folly, believe me, Sir, that dire want and poverty led me to commit myself. I was hemmed in on every side and knew not where to turn honestly for means of subsistence. I am now suffering for my past sins, and fervently hope and pray that I may be granted help and grace to turn over a new leaf by God's blessing.

I fervently trust for my beloved parents' sakes you will be generous enough to overlook my error, and thereby leave me your grateful debtor in gratitude for life, and I fervently hope that I shall soon be in a position to refund the amount due. Hoping to receive a favourable reply.—I remain, Sir, your most obediently,

OPENING OF THE KESSOWJEE NAIK DRINKING FOUNTAIN.

THE handsome new drinking fountain in Doongree Coolie Street, a gift to the town by Mr. Kessowjee Naik was formally opened on Saturday afternoon by his Excellency the Governor (Sir Philip Wodehouse.) Great preparations had been made for the occasion. Almost the entire length of Doongree Coolie Street, in which the fountain is situated, was roofed in with gaily coloured buntings, and formed a long narrow pandies. The whole floor of the street was covered with rich carpets and from the roof hung numerous handsome chandeliers. In front of the entrance was a large flag, stretching nearly across the street; and behind this was a raised dais, with a couch for the Governor. The dais and couch were both covered with rich Indian cloths, worked in crimson and gold. The Governor's couch faced downwards along the street and towards the fountain, and throughout the intervening space of several hundred yards handsomely upholstered sofas and chairs were ranged on either side of the central walk for the accommodation of visitors.

A large company assembled, consisting principally of wealthy native gentlemen, but with a good proportion of English gentlemen and ladies. Among those present we noticed the Hon. Mr. Rogers, the Hon. Mahomed Ali Rogay, the Hon. Rao Saheb Vishwanath Narayen Mundlik, the Hon. Becherdass Ambaidass, members of the Legislative Council, the Hon'ble Justice Green, Mr. Pedder, Municipal Commissioner, Mr. Walton, Municipal Engineer, Mr. Hamilton Maxwell, Mr. Arbuthnot, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Maclean, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Blanchard, Mrs. Barrow, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Ryan, Mr. Dadabhoy Hormusjee, Mr. Dhurmsey Poonjabhoy, Mr. Jairazbhoy Peerbhoy, Mr. Vizbhookundass Haribhoy, Mr. Moolje Sewjee, Mr. Ahmedbhoy Hubibhoy, Mr. Dadabhoy Nowrojee, Mr. Vurjeevundas Madhowdass, Mr. Koognauth Gopaldas and Mr. Mahomed Rowjee, Mr. Byramjee Jeejeebhoy, Mr. Byramjee Dadabhoy, and Mr. Cowasjee Manockjee Limjee.

H. E. the Governor arrived about a quarter to five, attended by his Aides-de-Camp, and Sir Frank Souter, Commissioner of Police. His Excellency was received at the entrance by Mr. Kessowjee Naik, Mr. Nursey Kessowjee, and Mr. Pedder, who conducted him to his seat on the dais. A band that was in attendance played the National Anthem, and all present stood up as the Governor entered.

Mr. Pedder then, according to the programmes gave the following description of the fountain and account of its object, and cost :—In the populous neighbourhood in which we now stand, the want of a drinking fountain has been much felt for a long time past. Representations having been made to Mr. Kessowjee Naik by his caste people and others, he generously determined to supply this want by erecting, at his own expense, a handsome drinking fountain on a site which would be convenient to the residents of this district. With this view, he selected the site on which the fountain is now erected, as most suitable for the purpose. The site in question, being situated at the junction of the Doongree Coolie Street and the two Chinch Bunder Roads, and near the overbridges leading to the Elphinstone Estate. As this site was then occupied by a police chowkey, Mr. Kessowjee, early in the month of January 1875, applied to your Excellency's Government for the grant of the land, free of cost, for the purpose indicated, suggesting at the same time that the chowkey be removed to another place. Government was pleased to "accept Mr. Kessowjee Naik's public-spirited offer on the understanding that they were not called upon to incur any expense, and that the designs for the fountain and tower were submitted for the approval of the Municipal Commissioner." Mr. Kessowjee having consented to these terms, the old chowkey was pulled down and a new one of approved and ornamental design, was built, at his expense, on a site much more convenient near the Musjid overbridge. To give effect to one of the conditions imposed by Government, and considering that the site was the best for the public, and was eventually to be in charge of the Municipality, it was considered best that our Executive Engineer, Mr. Walton for to whose professional skill and artistic tastes that city owes much, should prepare designs both of the fountain and the chowkey, and undertake the superintendence of the whole work. This he cheerfully did; the work was at once proceeded with, and complete at a total cost, inclusive of the police station, of about rupees twenty-one thousand. The fountain your Excellency will observe is in the Hindoo style of architecture with slight modification so as to admit of its having an English clock. The form is octagonal, rising to a height of 50 feet and finished off with a dome and richly carved finial. On either side of the front entrance to the fountain, basins for the supply of water to animals have been placed and in the centre of the fountain, four feet above the ground level, four ornamental basins have been built with spring taps connected with the Vehar Main, the centre of the fountain is reached by three flights of steps with figures of the bull on each flight. Over the front entrance a bass relief of the liberal hearted donor in marble has been placed. The structure, as your Excellency will observe, will serve both as a drinking fountain for men and animals and as a clock, and as such it cannot but be a boon to the thickly populated neighbourhood while it beautifies, at the same time this portion of the native town. Mr. Pedder concluded by requesting His Excellency to formally open the fountain. The Governor, attended by a number of gentlemen, accordingly walked to the fountain, and inspected it, and turned on the taps. After the opening, a photograph of the fountain, with the Governor, Mr. Kessowjee Naik, and one or two other gentlemen grouped on the steps, was taken by Mr. Ritter. On returning to the dais, His Excellency said:—Mr. Kessowjee Naik, I may now have the pleasure of declaring this fountain to be open to the use of the public. I feel greatly obliged to you for having invited me to be present at this ceremony; and I am also glad to take this opportunity of explaining to you that it was not in my power to have entertained H. R. H. the Prince of Wales to take part in the ceremony, as you wished that he should do. I am perfectly aware that it would have given his Royal Highness much satisfaction to have had an opportunity of testifying his appreciation of the generous liberality which prompted you to offer this handsome gift for the use of the public; but his engagements otherwise were so numerous and so heavy that I did not put the request before him. That is the sole reason for it. I think that you are much to be commended, not only for your munificence and liberality in this undertaking, but also for the courage which you have shown in carrying it out to completion. Many people might have been deterred by the very alarming accounts which have been put forward, from time to time, respecting the quality of the water the Vehar is supposed to give; but I am happy to think that you had the courage and the sense to show that you put no faith in these alarming predictions,—that you were quite satisfied that the water was very good, and that it was at any rate the best you were likely to obtain for many a long year to come. (Hear, hear.) I hope and trust that the view that you have taken may be accepted by the masses of your fellow citizens in Bombay. What is wanted is not, I think, better water but more water. (Hear, hear.); and every effort that we can make to produce that result must be beneficial. I trust the day will come when your example will be followed by many of your fellow citizens whom I see around me. I have again to thank you in the name of the public for your munificent gift. (Prolonged cheering)

The following reply was read on behalf of Mr. Kessowjee by Mr. Hamilton Maxwell :—"On behalf of the Hindoo community, to which I belong, and of the inhabitants of this district, and the workmen who are employed on the Town properties, I beg to tender to your Excellency their thanks for the trouble your Excellency has taken in coming to Mandvie Bunder to do honour to this occasion; and I trust that the people around, who will benefit by the supply of water from the drinking fountain, will remember, when expressing their gratitude for the boon conferred upon them, the good Governor of Bombay who first opened the fountain."

The up Usual distribution of garlands and bouquets of flowers, and pan soparee to the visitors, brought the ceremony to a conclusion.

THE FORGERY OF A CHEQUE FOR RS. 21,000 ON THE HONKONG AND SHANGHAI BANKING CORPORATION.

THIS case was resumed on Saturday before Mr. P. Ryan, at the Fort Police Court, in which two young Parsees, named Eduljee Byramjee Ghudialee and Ardaseer Lowjee Setna stand charged with using as genuine a forged document knowing it to be forged, also with forgery of a valuable document, namely, a cheque for Rs. 21,000, payable by the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation, to the Indian Press Company, Limited, or bearer.

Mr. Rimington (of Messrs. Rimington, Hore and Langley) appeared to conduct the case for the prosecution, and Mr. Macfarlane (of Messrs. Macfarlane and Skipsey) appeared for the defence of second prisoner.

Withoo Ramjee said—I am a jemadar of the detective police. I remember the 14th December last,—on which day the two prisoners were made over to me at 11 o'clock at night. When I took them to the Oomercarry chowkey, they made certain statements to me. On those statements I took them to the house of the sister of prisoner No. 1 at Agiary Lane near Funneswady. Both prisoners accompanied me, also a jemadar named Abdoolla and a havildar named Yacoob. Having arrived at the house we went up to the first story where I had a conversation with the prisoners. Prisoner No. 1 opened a cupboard in my presence, and took out this box (produced) which contained a batch of certain currency notes. He placed the notes in my hand, and I simply counted them. There were Government currency notes thirty-seven of Rs. 1,000 each. Prisoner No. 1 then said "these are the notes which I had brought from the Bank" in the presence and hearing of prisoner No 2. I conveyed the notes to the Oomercarry chowkey and made them over to Khan Bahadoor Akbar Ali, who made the notes up into a parcel and sealed the packet in my presence. On receiving the currency notes for Rs. 37,000 I put my mark on the notes, and I identify twenty of them. Prisoner No. 1 also gave me other smaller notes at the same time. The statement made to me at the Oomercarry chowkey by prisoner No. 2 was to allow him to speak to prisoner No. 1. I allowed them to do so. I then heard prisoner No. 2 say to prisoner No. 1 "whatever notes you had given me I gave up to the Police, and whatever notes you have got, you had better give up to the Police, for whatever is our fate it will happen." Prisoner No. 1 said "is it because you are going to die am I to die too?" Prisoner No. 2 then said. "We are dead already." Prisoner No. 1 then said to me, "I take prisoner No. 2 with him (prisoner No. 1) to Funneswady and I will give you the notes." The prisoners were given in my charge by Mr. Superintendent Smith for forging a cheque. When we arrived at Funneswady and went up-stairs, prisoner No. 2 said to prisoner No. 1 "I give up." On the following morning I followed Mr. Superintendent Smith and Abdoolla to the Elphinstone Circle and also to Messrs. Gaddum and Co.'s office.

John Godfrey Smith said—I am Superintendent of Police of the A division. I remember the 14th December last. On that day the two prisoners were brought to me between 10 and 11 p. m. by Inspector Framjee. Framjee then made a statement to me in the presence of the prisoners. We charged them with forging a cheque for Rs. 25,000 and presenting the same at the National Bank, also with forging a cheque for Rs. 21,000, and presenting it at the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation. I received the cheque for Rs. 21,000 from one Sorabjee Ruttonjee of the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank at about 5 p. m. I identify the cheque by my name on the back of it. I now identify the same. Inspector Framjee in the presence and hearing of the prisoners said that he obtained Rs. 6,000 which had been given up to him by prisoner No. 2, which he (Framjee) produced; they were in two bundles tied up in handkerchiefs. On opening the bundles I found they were currency notes. And Mr. Framjee added that the rest of the money was still missing. Prisoners Nos. 1 and 2 then made a statement to me, on which statement I took the priso tration should abstain from advising any increase of the assessment upon Kabilpur. As we are deciding this case upon other grounds, we do not deem it necessary to say what was the precise legal effect of the abandonment in 1857 of the regular inquiry (commenced under section 40 of that Regulation by Mr. Ravenscroft) when taken in connexion with section 47, which continued in force until 1863. We, therefore, do not give any opinion as to whether the subsequent inquiry and proceedings, which resulted in an enhancement of the assessment, were invalidated by sec. 47 of Reg. XVII. of 1827. But we may say this much that the unexplained cessation of Mr. Ravenscroft's proceedings does not tell favourably on the case.

From 1857 to 1869 the plaintiffs seem to have been permitted to remain in peaceful enjoyment of their village of Kabilpur at its ancient assessment. In the latter year Mr. Hope then being Collector of Surat, an inquiry was conducted by one of his assistants, which terminated in the order for the enhancement of the assessment on Kabilpur from Rs. 1,089-13-1 to Rs. 4,106-0. The village had been previously surveyed. The plaintiffs complained of the survey, and assert that Mr. Hope then informed them that the Survey was being made with a view to making a summary settlement with them, under Act VII. of 1863, but that, instead of that being done, the full assessment of Rs. 4,106-0 was placed upon the village. The defendants' principal witness Kesavlal says that when Mr. Hope returned the answer to the plaintiffs as to a summary settlement, he, Mr. Hope, was under the erroneous impression that Kabilpur was held on service tenure.

The enhancement is sought to be justified by Bombay Act I. of 1865, section 25, which enacts that: "It shall be lawful for an officer in charge of a survey to assess to the land revenue, under such general and local rules as may be in force in the Survey under his charge, all lands cultivated or uncultivated, and whether hitherto assessed or not, provided that such assessment shall not be levied for more than one year, until the sanction of the Governor in Council shall have been obtained thereto, and provided that it shall not be leviable from any land held and entered in the Land Registers as wholly or partially exempt from payment of land revenue, except to such amount as to in accordance with previous practice, or any law which has been, or may hereafter be, enacted relating to lands so held."

Section 49 of the same Act enacts that:—

"The provisions of this Act shall not, except for the purpose of defining village boundaries, be applied to alienated villages: Provided that it shall be competent to the Governor in Council to extend, by notification in the Government Gazette, all or any of the provisions of this Act to every such village, on application made in writing by the holder thereof, and further, to apply the provisions of this Act to all Government lands situated in alienated villages"

"Alienated village" is defined in sec. 2 cl. e. but it is unnecessary to set forth that definition, as we do not consider it necessary to give an opinion as to whether or not Kabilpur, being only partially exempt from payment of land revenue, is an alienated village within that definition.

The 51st section enacted that "this Act shall be taken as part of Regulation XVII. of 1827." but that section was repealed by sec. 20 of Bombay Act VI. of 1868.

A question might arise how far Sec. 25 of Bombay Act I. 1865 controls sec. 3 clause 1 and sec. 8 of Reg. XVII. of 1827, and sec. 21 of Bombay Act VII. of 1863, but we see no necessity for now attempting to solve that question, inasmuch as we think that the village of Kabilpur falls within the concluding proviso of sec. 25 of Bombay Act I. of 1865, which prohibits the levy of any assessment "from land held and entered in the Land Registers as wholly or partially exempt from payment of Land Revenue, except to such amount as is in accordance with previous practice or any law which has been, or may hereafter be, enacted relating to lands so held." There is not any definition of the term "Land Registers" in the Act. No separate Land Register for Kabilpur, such as appears to have been contemplated by Reg. XVII. of 1827, sec. 22, seems to have been kept by Government. The Advocate General however, with becoming candour, declined to argue that the Land Registers mentioned in sec. 25 of Bombay Act I. of 1865 are only those named in Reg. XVI. of 1827. He said most justly that "it would not be decent to contend that, where Government has failed to keep registers under Reg. XVI. of 1827, sec. 22, the village books or other records may not be looked to on claims for total or partial exemption from payment of land revenue," but he argued that the entries of Kabilpur in the Government records from 1848 to 1868 as, to a certain extent, rent free, were not sufficient to bring it within the proviso in sec. 25 of Bombay Act I. of 1865. But we think that these entries, taken with the previous entries from A. D. 1691-92 down to A. D. 1848 (showing, as we have already held, a uniform payment of a sum much below the full assessable value of the lands during that time) satisfy the exigency of the proviso in sec. 25, and abundantly establish that Kabilpur is partially exempt from payment of land revenue.

In recapitulation then we hold, 1st; that Kabilpur is an Udad bandhi Jama village settled for hereditarily and of right by the plaintiffs and their co-parceners in the gross at a fixed immutable rent independent of the quantity of land under cultivation and payable to Government, and, as such, falls within Sec. 8 of Reg. XVII. of 1827—2ndly, that the plaintiffs have succeeded in showing that the same village is land situated in a district ceded by the Peishwa before 1803.i.e in 1802 to the British, held by the Plaintiffs and their predecessors in title partially exempt from payment of land revenue under a tenure recognised by the custom of the country for thirty years and upwards, and therefore falls within the claims for exemption mentioned in clause 21 of Bombay Act VII. of 1863—And, lastly, that whether sec. 2, clause 1 and sec. 8 of Reg. XVII. of 1827 and sec. 21 of Bombay Act VII. of 1863 are controlled or not by Bombay Act I of 1865, the same village is liable to assessment to the extent of Rs. 1,089-13-1 only. inasmuch as it falls within the concluding proviso in Bombay Act I of 1865, saving from further assessment a village entered in the Land Register as partially exempt from payment of Land Revenue.

In conclusion we must hope that the facts of this case were not fully known to those members of the Revenue Department on whose advice the assessment on this village of Kabilpur has been nearly quadrupled. Such an absence of knowledge, however, would indicate a system of investigation so imperfect, perfunctory and one-sided as, if not liable to judicial supervision, must endanger the rights of property. Of that system we regret to say that this case would be no isolated instance. We are reluctant to think that the alternative hypothesis could be true—namely that, notwithstanding an ample knowledge of the facts (which have been so satisfactorily established in the District Court and here) there could have been so much indiscreet over-zeal for the Revenue as to induce any officer to manifest such a deliberate disregard for ancient vested rights as it would be painful to think could be possible under British rule. A recurrence of similar cases would go far to shake the belief of Her Majesty's subjects in this country in the permanence of any landed property whatsoever.

Happily for the Plaintiffs they had provided for them by Mount Stuart Elphinstone and his colleagues, who, in this respect walked in the footsteps of Lord Cornwallis, a Civil Court in which both parties and their witnesses might be fully and fairly heard, and the voluminous documentary evidence thoroughly and carefully scrutinised, and resumption, not to say confiscation, of a property of more than two centuries standing, (proved to have been held at a moderate fixed rent for about 180 years of that time, and which may have been so held for a much longer period) successfully resisted. As matters stand at present, the Revenue Department has attempted to do here, is virtually to confiscate the property.

It is too much to expect with any confidence that an expensive proceeding in such a case as this can be satisfactory. The Revenue Officers, if unaided by hearing the facts fully debated by the professional advisers of the parties, and left to struggle alone through an enormous mass of documents and accounts, may err on either side. Here we find them erring on the side of high fiscal views. In the Kanara case, on the other hand, it was manifest that the opposition offered to the survey and assessment, and the consequent litigation, were, in a great measure, due to the sympathy of some of the Collectors having been excited in favour of the landholders, by imperfect investigations and erroneous views as to the authority and acts of Sir Thomas Munro. I am not for a moment to be understood as saying that those Collectors intentionally sought to raise that opposition or litigation, but their opinions, confidentially expressed in Reports to Government, were on record in their Kacheries, and information contained in the archives of a Kacheri or other public office in this country, has a singular facility in making its exit if there be any person interested in assisting it to do so. Consequently the views of those Collectors were well known throughout the province of Kanara. If the decision of the Kanara case had been left to those officers, or had been based on their reports, the result would have been the opposite of what it was in Court.

The plaintiffs have established their case with a degree of clearness almost marvellous, when the length of time and of the accounts is considered. One volume of papers containing evidence of witnesses and documents consists of 358 pages. The other volume comprises 654 pages of accounts and papers, all of which have been translated. It could not be expected that, with the multifarious duties which press upon the members of Government, they could have found time to become acquainted with the contents of such a pile. We cannot, however, suppose that if a full and unbiassed investigation had been made, and the result properly laid before Government previously to the enhancement of the assessment in 1870-71, the plaintiffs would have been forced to incur the anxiety and expense of defending their ancient rights in a Court of Law.

We affirm the decree of the District Court with costs.

Errata.—In the first part of this judgment published on Saturday, page 4, column 1, near the end of 3rd para. of that column, for "Rs. 1,292-14 were received by Government" read were "receivable." In 7th para of same column, first line, for "Regulation XVII. of 1872" read 1827. In 12th para of same column second line for "the principle of the maxim" read "on the principle," In the second column, page 4, 11th line, for "can only interfere with the legal right or title of the plaintiff" read can only interfere with regard to i. e. adjudicate upon the legal right or title of the plaintiff."

ENGINEERING WORKS, WHARF ROAD, QUBIT TOWN, ISLE OF DOGS, POPLAR, E LONDON, June 1875.—The late Firm of YARROW & HEDLEY having been dissolved by mutual assent of both Partners, I have taken the above very convenient and commodious premises (which are opposite Greenwich Hospital, and within three minutes' walk of the North Greenwich Railway Station from Fenchurch Street) where I purpose to continue my business of Engineer and Steam Launch Builder, heretofore carried on by me with such great success. Our Machinery is of the Highest Class and especially adapted to the manufacture of Steam Launches.
I may be allowed to refer to the fact that I have had nearly 40 years' experience as a Practical Working Engineer and Builder of Steam Launches (see Berwick Advertiser, June 30th 1838) in addition to which I have secured the co-operation of Mr. Robert McKechnie (for 12 years Manager of Engineers with Messrs C. Powes & Co.) a thorough Practical Engineer, and intend to carry on under the style of ROBERT HEDLEY & Co., so that our Customers must feel satisfied that all orders entrusted to us will be carried out in a thoroughly practical and scientific manner, and I therefore trust that my Firm may be favoured with your esteemed support.
My Firm have secured the following monopolies:—
1. The exclusive right of manufacture of Boats upon, "Bedeley's" Principle whereby a greater economy of space is obtained—light draught, of water, as the propelling power is under the centre, of the bilge—easy turning without a rudder—and Racing prevented.
2. The manufacture of "Cooper and Sterne's" Patent Rotary Engines, with the privilege of making and fitting same, which may be adapted for small Pleasure Steamers at great reduction in price.
3. "Hedley's" Patent Duplex Hydraulic Boat Lowering and Hoisting Apparatus (No. 4252) whereby Boats and Launches may be speedily and safely lowered in cases of emergency at sea or for landing Mails and Passengers where large Vessels are prevented going near the shore.
